

European perspectives
Regional actions

Cooperation and expertise since 1953

The Institute for the Danube Region and Central Europe (IDM)

1953

Foundation of the Research Institute for Issues of the Danube Region in Salzburg

1993

New structure and new name Institute for the Danube Region and Central Europe

1995

Dr. Erhard Busek becomes chairman of the institute

2003

Anniversary 50 years IDM; New office at Hahngasse

2019

New Slogan: European perspectives
Regional actions

Cooperation and expertise since 1953

Our goals

Strengthening of relations with the neighbouring countries

Support of the Austrian commitment in the Danube Region, Central and South East Europe

Information on the countries of the Danube Region, Central and South East Europe for a better understanding

Networking with similar institutions in Central, Eastern and South East Europe

Think Tank for governmental agencies and institutions

We focus on ...

The activities of IDM

Educational Activities, Events and Awards

Postgraduate Master
Programme "Interdisciplinary
Balkan Studies"
(in cooperation with Danube
University Krems)

Summer Schools

Conferences, Workshops and Seminars

Danubius Award
Danubius Young
Scientist Award
SEEMO Award

Podcasts

YouTube Livestreams

Projects

The activities of IDM

Publications

Info Europa

Special topics published together with the Die Presse

IDM Policy Paper Series

IDM PPS

Der Donaauraum

scientific journal of the Institute
since 1956

IDM-Info

Newsletter of the Institute

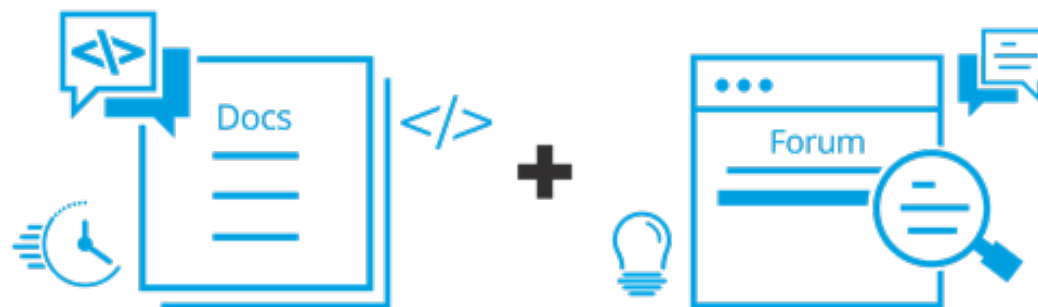

Studies

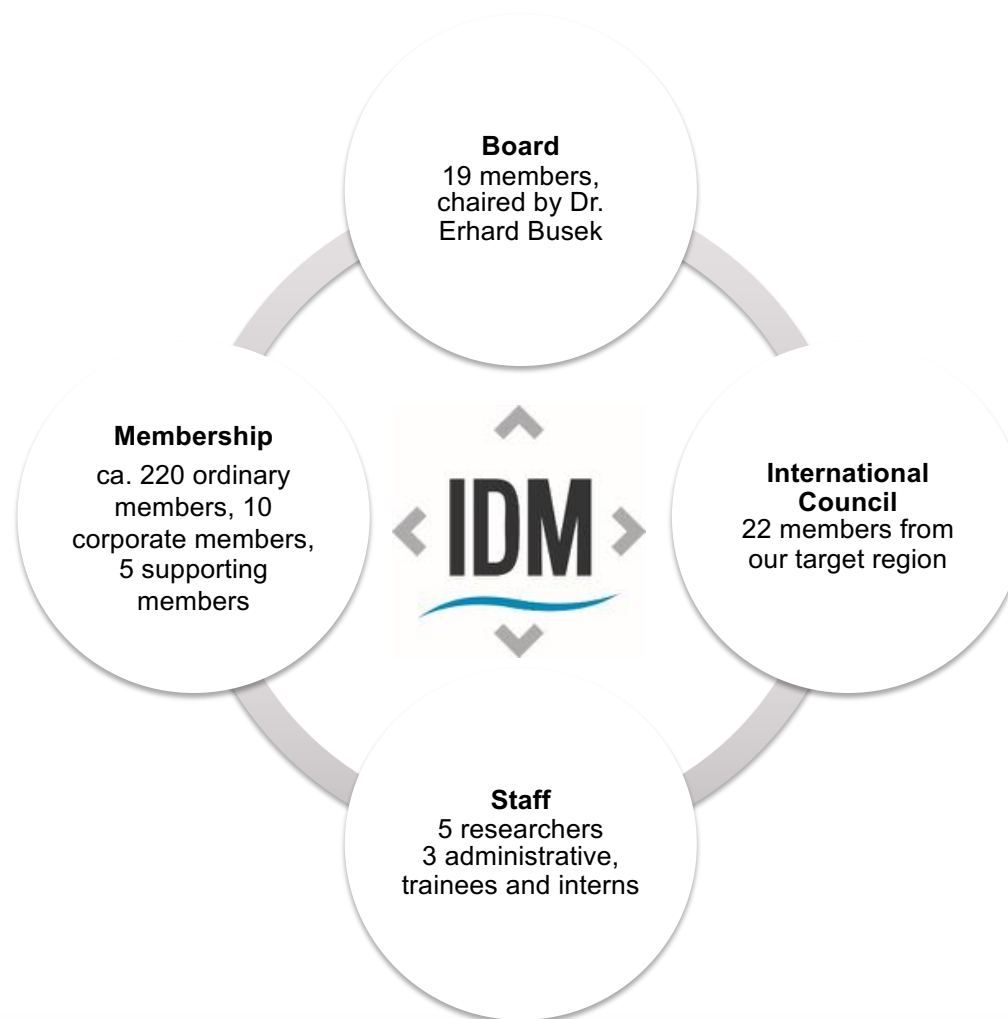

The activities of IDM

Documentation

Documentation center
with publications relevant
to current developments
in the Danube Region,
Central and South East
Europe

Contact point for researchers, students and cooperation partners in the region

STRUCTURE OF IDM

European perspectives
Regional actions

Cooperation and expertise since 1953

Contact details:

Mag. Sebastian Schäffer, MA
s.schaeffer@idm.at

www.idm.at

IDMVienna

